NEVADA OUSTS NEW YORK LIFE.

Reno, Oct 8.—Sam P. Davis, State Controller of Nevada and ex-officio Insurance Commissioner of the State today revoked the license of the New York Life Insurance Company, thereby prohibiting that company from transacting further business in the State of Nevada. This will not annul the policies of the company, which have already been issued in the State, but prohibits any more policies from being issued.

The record of the business done in this State by the New York Life reaches an enormous figure, as shown by the report of the Controller. During last year the company issued 1178 policies to citizens in the State, the policies amounting to more than $5,000,000. The amount paid in to the company by the policy holders is given as $102,457.

The company has offices in Reno, Carson, Virginia City, Coldfield, Sparks, Winnemucca, Lovelock, Carlin, Elko, Verdi and Golconda, and agents in all the smaller towns of the State.

The action of the Controller was taken after due investigation of the affairs of the company. In a letter received by him from President McCall it was acknowledged that the company had donated money for the campaign fund used in the last general election. It was the opinion of the Controller that, in justice to the citizens of the State and in order to prevent the further collection of money by the company to be used for corrupt and illegal purposes, the only alternative left was to prohibit the transaction of any further business by revoking the license. The decision of the Controller is contained in the following letter to the president of the New York Life Company:

"John McCall,
"President New York Life.

"Pending an investigation of the corrupt management and the fraudulent exposures of the disposal of the funds intrusted to your company and so long as yourself and George Perkins retain offices of trust in the management of the New York Life, the license of the company to do business in the State of Nevada is hereby revoked. Upon the advice of change of management and satisfactory proof of honest management the license will be reissued.

"SAM P. DAVIS,
"Controller and Ex Officio Insurance Commissioner of Nevada."
